MANILA, Philippines - For the first time in the history of Philippine sports, two athletes are vying for the prestigious Archery Gold Medal at the upcoming 15th Southeast Asian Games to be held in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. Rep. Amado Espino, chair of the Philippine Sports Commission, said that Manny Maligan and Arnold Medina are in the hunt for the coveted gold medal that carries a cash prize of P2.2 million. Medina has emerged as the front runner of the sport for years. While Maligan is also a contender for the medal, Espino said he is not worried about losing to his rival. Espino believes that Maligan will get the medal for the country, and that his surge will keep rising even if he loses to his rival. Maligan will be representing the country in Kuala Lumpur as he is the newly-appointed chair of the Philippine Archery

Federation. “I feel that this is a golden opportunity for me. The country needs me and I will prove that I can deliver,” Maligan said. Maligan is a controversial figure in the archery community. He has been accused of taking bribes to help the country win the gold medal in archery at the 2013 Southeast Asian Games. ‘I’m not a babysitter, and I’m not your nanny,’ says Gayle King. Gayle King’s new book, How to Build a Happy Life: 7 Powerful Keys to Creating a Life That Feels Good—and Lasts has just been released and has already made its mark on the news and media industries. The media mogul, author, activist, and real-life moms—who have four kids between them—has some very bold words about the title of this book. “Don’t get me wrong, the subtitle is perfect and it’s going to be a very different book than the one I had in mind,” she told SheKnows.com. “But I’m not a babysitter, and I’m not your nanny, so 82157476af
